- This optional calling plan offers a customized combination of long distance and local service to customers residing in Texas who subscribed to Sprint for local service prior to December 27, 2000. Sprint local service may no longer be available. Where local service is available, the monthly recurring charge includes local service in addition to long distance service. Information concerning local service may be found in Sprint's applicable local tariffs.
- All calls are billed in whole minute increments. Partial minutes are rounded up to the next whole minute.
